Munchies with Your Neighbors

Tuesday, January 22
Paladar Latin Kitchen & Rum Bar
1905 Towne Centre Boulevard
Annapolis Towne Centre
5:30 - 8 p.m.

Join your neighbors at another fantastic AOTB fundraiser, this time with a new twist to start off 2019 in grand style on Tuesday, January 22, 2019 from 5:30 to 7:30 pm. Although we're returning to a venue that was very well-received last summer, we're amping things up a bit by going with a price-fixed (except for drinks of course) tasting event. To speed up service to our hopefully large group and offer the best value-for-money, we've chosen a nice range of Latin-inspired heavy hors d'oeuvres. The individually-billed, $25.00 per-person charge during this two-hour, buffet-style, all-you-care-to-eat event includes an assortment of our five favorites including Homemade Chips & Salsa, Traditional Guacamole, Grilled Lamb Meatball Skewers, Paladar's Signature Blackened Fish Tacos, and Chimichurri Grilled Vegetable Skewers. Our party will be set in a semi-private space, ideal for mingling while munching, and of course sampling Paladar's amazing range of rums, beers, and soft drinks.

Self parking and free valet parking is available across the street. As always, our goal is drawing our neighborhood closer together by sharing great eats and each other's company for a couple of hours. This type of "cocktail party" seems an obvious choice for doing just that, so what's keeping you?

RSVP (please read):

Please reply with the number of people in your party and their names so I can make name tags—we have lots of new neighbors. Since we may be charged for no-shows this time, I would really appreciate your positive reply by January 19th. It is also important to be accurate because the number we report 72 hours before our event date will determine which room/space will be set up. Of course you can come even if you don't reply, or reply late, but the fewer unknowns the better with this type of event, so please reply directly to my email address below and not to the AOTB president.

Thanks and hope to see you all there. --Margaret Delia, special fundraising chair, POA-AOTB, omdelia@comcast.net
